Full Property Description

Contemporary new-built home in what many consider to be the best area in Highland Park. This home exemplifies the indoor-outdoor living experience, a bi-fold door opens up the space, integrating living space with the patio surrounded by nature. Once inside this house, enjoy the natural light coming in through the clerestory of the butterfly roof. Custom designed kitchen featuring hand-treated wood and caesar stone counter-top. Three bedrooms and two bathrooms with a separate finished structure to serve the purpose of creative space/garage. Additional storage space under the house that could also serve the purpose of an office/den. Long drive way along the minimalistic drought tolerant landscape will fit as many as five cars. Located just in the border with Eagle Rock, this home is walking distance to all the York Blvd hot spots, hiking trails, and public transportation.
