Full Property Description

This south facing Frank Lloyd Wright style mid century modern home is perched high above Lloyd Harbor with water views from all rooms. The home is drenched with natural light throughout the day. Built into a slope, the home feels as if it's sitting above the trees and has very unique character. Beach access with parking and meandering sandy coastline, wooded nature trails, protected harbor entrances and 180 degree water views. Amazing sunrise, sunset, moonrise. Around the corner from historic Caumsett state historic park preserve which can be used with separate permit.

The home has many different areas that can be used for different POVs and vignettes.

Truly a unique space that can lend itself to almost any sort of creative brief.

1 Hour from New York City.
